DOMINION DAY.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the existence of the Dominion of "This Canada of Ours" was spent by the people of Prince Albert district in a round of amusements from early morning to late at night.
The day broke cloudy with rain and until about one o'clock it looked as if rain was going to stop the day's sport entirely, and it did to a great extent stop a number of people from coming in to town, but the greater portion of the settlers from the surrounding country came in, some in waggons, some in carts and others on ponies even without either saddle or bridle, but only a sash or rope tied on the animal's lower jaw. Duck Lake, Batoche and even as far away as Saskatoon were well represented.

LACROSSE MATCH.
On Tuesday last the Rustlers Lacrosse Club, of Duck Lake, sent down a challenge to the local club to play on "the 1st," and also in the letter they said they would not wait for a reply but would start down on Thursday. The game was arranged to come off at 10 o'clock and although black clouds were hovering around and a light rain falling the boys began their game and played until noon. The match was well contested throughout and although the visitors were defeated by three goals to naught, they showed they were not antagonists to be despised, and are to be congratulated on the way they handle the stick. The teams were as follows:—

IN CAMP.
On July 1st, under the auspices of the Pork and Beans Club, sports were held at Mr. J. L. Reid's survey camp on Shell River. The camp was gaily decorated with blankets, axes, overalls, and an unlimited supply of red landladies, and presented a spectacle at once pleasing and instructive.

The show opened with pole leaps and standing jumps, which events were won by Wigmore and Barwell. Wigmore again came to the front in the quarter-mile race, while Barwell captured the 100-yards race and the pipe race fell to J. S. Bain, who by the way, in company with the other competitors, wishes to thank Mr. Graham Mercer for the excellent tobacco supplied the starters, some of whom refused to start after they got their pipes filled. The foot race was not such a success as might have been expected owing to the limited supply of boots in camp. A deputation was sent to the surrounding settlers to procure boots but after half an hour's search, returned with the sole of a brogan and half a moccasin, presented by Mr. Thos. Powers.

The three-legged race went to Wigmore and Barwell and the cabre tossing to C.
Storey. At 6 o'clock the competitors and their friends were entertained at dinner at Gabriel's restaurant by the Pork and Beans Club. A magnificent feed of pork and beans washed down with copious draughts of tea, were disposed of and the remaining events on the programme were proceeded with. Boucher and Wigmore secured the mule tug and Boucher showed to advantage in the square wrestling, defeating all competitors easily.

The day closed with a grand pow-wow, Arthur Way performing a war dance that has seldom been surpassed in the North West.

Graham Mercer acted as secretary judge committee, umpire, starter, referee, and bellman and performed his onerous duties with great zeal.

STONEY CREEK.
(From our own Correspondent.)

Last week we were much pleased by the arrival of a party of settlers and delegates (fourteen in all, who, in spite of rainy weather, thoroughly examined the country and expressed themselves as more than pleased with it, and in consequence most of them are locating in tp. 44, r. 18. They were accompanied by two Government agents, Mr. Pettin, who founded the Dakota colony last season at Yorkton, and Mr.
Richard Mair, whose genial face it always a pleasure to see.

Dr. Spence has let the contract for his dwelling house to Platt Bros., who are kpt busy, this being the third building they have contracted for this season.
The doctor has forty acres broken on his homestead, and fifty head of cat arrived last week, purchased, we believe, from Mr. Thos. McKay.

Next week 200 head of horses and cat'e are expected in from Dakota, having been driven overland.

Every day brings new arrivals and before the snow flies the eastern portion of Kimbino district will be the most popular.

In a month we may expect our post office. It will be called McFurt, and is located on sec. 30, tp. 44, r. 18. Mr. B.
Rockwell being postmaster.

BIRCH HILLS.

A picnic was held at this place on Friday last on the grounds near the school house. A large number of people were present and some sports were held and after a bountiful prepared repast, provided by the ladies, a programme was given by W. F. Meyers, M.L.A., who was chairman, every part of which was well carried out, as follows:—Speech by the chairman; hymn; the school children; recitations, "Look not upon Wine," and "The Brown Thrush," by Chas. Young and Thos. Taylor; hymn by the children; recitation, "Grandpa," Annie Taylor; speech, R. W. Boylan; recitations, "Drive the Nail Right," Sam. Young, A. Little Boy's Trouble," by Chas. Clark, "Nell's Letter," Etta Jackson; song, "Rap! Rap!
Rap!" by the school children; recitations, "Lullaby," Hy. Stevenson; "If ever I See," M. Jackson; The Children's Home," Jessie Clark; song, "The Birdie's Ball," by the school children; recitation, "Don't Kill the Birds," Jas. Jackson; song, "Ring, Ring the Merry School Bell," the school children. God Save the Queen.

A small purse was raised and a number of foot races were held the results of which were:—

Boys under 12 years—Chas. Young, Jno.
Clarke, Sam. Young.

Girls under 12 years—Annie Taylor, 1st; Hattie Stevens, 2nd; Jessie Clarke, 3rd.

Ladies' race—Miss L. Donnen, 1st; Mrs.
M. Hamilton, 2nd.

Musical instruments were then brought to light and dancing continued from that time until 2 o'clock a.m., broken only by intermissions for lunch. Too much can not be said of the management by the committee nor of the hospitality and kindness which was shown to all visitors. The Birch Hill people have again sustained their reputation of making all picnics there enjoyable.

WHERE TO SETTLE.

Shell River, July 1st 1892.

To the Editor of the Times, Sir,—In looking through the columns of your valuable paper I noticed an article in regard to the Shell River district.

Now, Sir, I have been here ever since the beginning of April and have seen a considerable part of this country since my arrival, and, as far as I am concerned prefer the Shell River country to any I have ever seen. I am satisfied the intending settlers cannot do better than settle in the Shell River district where there is an abundance of wood, water and hay with a soil of the very best quality, from heavy clay to black sandy loam. The best place I have found, where there can be a very large settlement formed containing many miles square, is about six miles south-west of the farm of Mr. Thos. Powers. The country is all good, but I consider this part is second to none in the district. It is also a very picturesque place and therefore poses attractions upon which many people place great value. Land hunters will do well to visit this place before returning to town.
I remain, yours truly,
J. L. Reid.

(CORRESPONDENCE)

It would be difficult to find a more appropriate expression for the feeling of the public than the following:

IS THERE TO REDRESS?

To the Editor of The Times.

Owing to the mean, sneaky, contemptible action of some of our merchants keeping their stores open on public holidays, such as the 1st July, 24th May, etc., I am sorry to say the majority of the merchants and probably all the clerks, which I think unfair, will be deprived of enjoying a holiday at all for the next year or two, unless the men that violate the rules will act honorably.

MERCHANT.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, D.C., June 21, 1922

KNIGHTS OF LABOR AND POLITICS. Powderly, Hayes, Devlin, Wright and Davies, the Executive Board of the Knights of Labor, a few days since, lectured together across the table in room 152 in the National Hotel in this city.

These gentlemen from out of town did not register their names. They disclaimed knowledge of any formal meeting. They just happened in and had an informal talk. Whether they discussed third party politics, the death of President Park, or the political health of candidate Reid, we do not know; nor even prominent Knights of Labor nor Alliance Congressmen here at the Capital.

ANOTHER LITTLE PARTY but having no connection with the other met recently about a private dining table at the Arlington, consisting of Devoe, Sheppard, Attorney-General Miller, Secretary Noble, and Senator Hiram. These were not quite so mysterious but fully a secret as the Knights. Surely it did not take all these gentlemen to consider whether or not Mr. Devoe should succeed Mr. Blaine.

CHURCHY BLAINE is learning by sad experience that misfortune lies in the hands of the children. The recent death of his son Eugene made a child loss of children within a year. His only surviving son and child has been severely divorced from his wife. It was for marrying this then immature son to a woman of greater age than Blaine sharply repudiated Father Power. Three heavy domestic afflictions will make Mr. Blaine's political troubles seem of trifling account to him and his wife. The latter is credited with a large income in her husband's name. He is said to be a fond of authority and he is conspicuous for ability and that he will in his favorite pursuit find an agreeable substitute for any long, unexciting and deceptive political labors.

AN ACCIDENT HOUSE with doors and blinds closed and barred, looks out upon the great Lafayette square at right angles to the front of the White House and State Department buildings. Curled according to popular superstition.

It was before the war a club house and from its steps Barton Key watched for the handkerchief signal of Daniel Sickles' wife, so openly that the husband shot him. Dying he was carried into the house. The disgraced wife became insane and the husband, who lost a leg at Gettysburg, became the famous General Sickles now prominent in Tammany circles. In this same house Secretary Seward was lying having been severely injured while riding in his carriage when the madwoman Pauline pulled past the sick man's attendants and with a savage knife stabbed him through his head clothes in his hand over his head by the quick witted victim. This ill-fated house was selected as a residence by Mr. Blaine when appointed secretary, though he owned a magnificent residence at Dupont Circle. The superstitious had here an explanation of his late misfortune.

WHY DREW EYES of Washington? "There is no city on the globe where a man's sense of self importance grows more rapidly or receives more continuous recognition. Horace said that fame was possessed by the man at whom the people pointed the finger and said 'that's him.' When a high official moves abroad in Washington, whether in the consciousness of his carriage or in democratic horse car, he is continually looking for these signs of recognition."

All this is conducive of the abnormal tightness of the hot land. I presume there are more tight hot lands in Washington than in any other center of population in this country. But after all it is a delightful place.

Depew it is understood has just been here. The Washington papers advise him to get a bigger hat at once.

CAPITAL.

ST. ANN'S CONVENT.

The closing exercises and Distribution of prizes at St. Ann's Convent took place on last Wednesday evening in presence of a very large assemblage of the parents and friends of the pupils.

His Honor, Lieut.-Governor Jos. Royal occupied the chair and among the visitors from a distance were Madame Royal-Supt. and Madame Gagnon and Madame Stano, of Regina, and Miss Trudeau, of Ottawa. A beautifully illuminated address was presented to His Honor by Miss de la Gorgiendiere on behalf of the pupils.

The principal features of the programme were Mrs. Hannon's drama "The Siege of Valencia," "Une Gamelle de Noel" in French, and "Dick Whittington," a comic drama by the juniors, interspersed with music, vocal and instrumental (piano organ and guitar).

The pupils acquitted themselves very creditably in their various parts, evoking frequent applause from the audience. The French drama, the characters in which were (with one minor exception) taken by English speaking pupils, was rendered with very much spirit and His Honor, himself a French Canadian, expressed his pleasure at the correctness of their pronunciation. At the close of the proceedings His Honor, in a brief speech, spoke in very high terms of what he had seen and heard and congratulated the recent teachers on the results of their labors. He also complimented the pupils in the manner in which they had acquitted themselves. It had been a pleasure to him to accept the invitation to be present. He had made it a practice, he said, to accept every invitation extended to him to be present at the closing exercises of the schools throughout the Territories. Education is a matter in which he felt and wished to show his deepest interest.

The Hon. Justice McGuire in a few words thanked His Honor on behalf of the Reverend Mothers for being present and for the kindly manner in which he had referred to their efforts.

The prizes and medals were then distributed to the successful pupils by the Lieut.-Governor, after which the proceedings closed with "God Save the Queen."

The following are the prize list and announcements for the next scholastic year.
